To Whom It May Concern:

It is with the utmost confidence that Penn State Tool and Die Corporation would recommend Quality Support of 900 Water Street, Scottdale, PA to anyone needing final product services.

We have used Quality Support for our packaging and shipping product needs for at least the last 10 years with no problems or concerns. They provide us with our requested orders in an on time manor and always with quality we can count on.

Quality Support is a small local shop with big capabilities, don't hesitate to give them a try. We did and couldn't be more satisfied.

Sincerely,

Ralph E. Ciacco
President, PSTD
